

I am a Montreal based multimedia artist with a passion for cross-platform integration and collaboration with artists from diverse media. Through my work, I aim to create pieces that are accessible and moving to a diverse audience. I believe that Sarah Cropper's upcoming production Magdalen' would be a powerful vehicle in which to integrate my socio-metaphorical work, thus contributing to this timely and powerful subject matter that Sarah has chosen to explore.

John Naccarato
September 2006